

The Jew(s), the Yahudi and the Israelites?

Updated July 28, 2015

Definition - Jew - any individual who is a member of the Jewish People and is united to them by the religion called Judaism.

“The Question of who is a Jew has arisen with particular urgency today, especially in the Modern State of Israel. This is because of intense pressure from the Movements of Reform and Conservative Jewry, who feel that they have been excluded or more precisely, that Conversions performed by their Rabbis have not been recognized by Israeli authorities. Another major factor is the immigration of hundreds of thousands of individuals from the former Soviet Union, many of whom claim that they are Jews and who were in fact persecuted in their home land because of that identification, but who may not, according to the Halachic definition, be a Jew.”

“According to a strict Halachic definition, the answer to the question of who is Jewish is clear. A Jew is someone who either ... is a child of a Jewish mother or is a Convert to Judaism who, after a period of serious and verified study of the Principles of the Faith and the Laws of Judaism, has done the following: Accepted upon him or herself the Yolk of the Kingdom of Heaven and the Yolk of God's Commandments, Immersed himself or herself in a Ritual Pool of Water known as a Mikveh, symbolizing Rebirth, if a male, has undergone the Process of Brit Milah.”

Note: the forgoing quotes were taken from the “Jewish101” web-site. Translation....to be a Jew you need to be a member of their religion, and believe in....Judaism....nothing more.

Typical use of the word "Jew(s)"- A word that is incorrectly used in many English Bibles, as a simile to translate the Hebrew word “Yahudi.” The word Jew(s) has also become a synonym to translate the word “Israel or Israelites.” Both of these uses are false and very deceptive word associations. The English word Jew has no association or relationship to a descendant of one of the original 12 Scriptural tribes of Israel nor does the word Jews relate to any of the descendants of one of the 12 Scriptural tribes named “Yahudah.” The word “Israel” (Yisrael) is however a Scriptural word that refers to the collective 12 tribes that stem from the Scriptural Israelites. The Scriptural word “Yahudi” refers to a descendant of one the 12 tribes of Israel that was named Yahudah.

The word "Jew" is a fabricated word. It is not found in the Hebrew Scriptures or in the writings known as the Greek New Testament. The word Jew originated early in the 15th century because the letter "J" did not exist until introduced as a vowel difference by printers of early English Bible translations. The following word list along with their associate English definitions have been "transliterated" from the language of the Hebrew Scriptures and/or from the Aramaic, or from the Greek writings of the New Testament as noted. In other words, the Hebrew, Aramaic, or Greek words have been placed into English letters using a transliterated form so when the word is pronounced in the English language, the resulting sound will closely approximate the sound of the original Hebrew, Aramaic or Greek language.

In some English Bibles, the word Jews (the plural form) is used to replace the Aramaic word Yahudim, which would be a native or person dwelling on a portion of Palestinian land that was once known as the Kingdom of Yahud. However, unlike the word Jew or Jews, the word Yahudim would also include people of any diverse racial groups who were living in the region of the Southern Kingdom of Yahud. Even the occupying Romans dwelling there during the First Century could be Yahudim. This is like using the word “American” to refer to any of the many diverse peoples that are living in the country called America.

Note: Note how the word “Jew” or “Jews” is often incorrectly translated/substituted for the correctly transliterated and like sounding words from the Hebrew Scriptures as shown in “bold” type below.

Word Definitions:

Yahud, (Aramaic) = a word corresponding to the Ancient Southern Kingdom and land area of "Yahud." This land area was named after Yahudah, one of the 12 sons of Ya'aqob (Jacob) Israel, "Yahud" also a singular form of the name Yahudah - (incorrectly translated as Jew, Judea, or Judah in many English Bibles).

Yahudain, Yahudean, Yahudym, or Yahudim, (Aramaic) all are like-sounding words in English, = a plural word defining the inhabitants (of any race) living in the Ancient Southern Kingdom of Yahud - (incorrectly translated as Jews, or Judeans, in many English Bibles).

Yahudah, (Hebrew) = means *Yah be praised in Hebrew, the compound name of the 4th son of Ya'aqob/Israel - (incorrectly translated as Judah, Jew or Jews in many English Bibles).

Yahudi or Yahudy, (Hebrew) like-sounding words, = the plural forms of Yahudah, the descendants of, or pertaining to Yahudah - (incorrectly translated as Jew, Jews, Jewish, or Judeans in many English Bibles).

Iouda, or Ioudas, (Greek) = Transliterates the Hebrew word Yahudah, or his descendants, living in the Ancient Southern Kingdom of Yahud - (incorrectly translated as Judah, Judas, Jude, Jew or Jews in many English Bibles).

Ioudaios or Iudaios, (Greek) from Iouda = Transliterates the Hebrew word Yahudain or Yahud. Context of this Greek word determines form and meaning - (incorrectly translated as Jew, Jews, Jewish, Judea in many English Bibles).

Ioudaismos, (Greek) = Transliterates the Hebrew word used by Greeks in reference to the religious system of the Yahudi - (incorrectly translated as Judaism, or Jewism in many English Bibles).

Juda, (English) = a word that comes from the Greek transliterated word Iudaios, (Iudaios is the name of a Greek pagan deity).

Two Modern Jewish Groups:

Modern Jews divide themselves into two primary groups. One group refers to themselves as "Ashkenazi Jews" and the other group as "Sephardim Jews" or Sephardic Jews. There is a great deal of difference between these groups. The two groups are not one united people, but are divided socially, politically, and religiously.

Jew, Ashkenazi (m) - these are most of today's American, Franco-German, East German, Polish, most Russian, and some Central European Jews. They are now found all over the globe and in the Jewish State called Israel. Most Zionist Jews also place themselves into the "Ashkenazi Jew" category. Many modern day Jews have identified themselves with, or are often synonymous with this "Ashkenazi label." However, the truth is that most of these self-called Ashkenazi Jews have no racial identity with the lineage of a Scriptural Ashkenazi. A true racial Ashkenazi would in fact be a descendant of Japheth, the second son of Noah. Such a person would be called a "Japhethite Jew" not an "Ashkenazi Jew" (if that person had in fact adopted Judaism as his/her religion). The Hebrew Scriptures state in Gen. 10:3, and in I Chron. 1: 6 that Ashkenaz was one of the sons of Gomer and that Gomer was a son of Japheth, who was a son of Noah. Ashkenaz was also a brother of Togarmah and a nephew of Magog who the Khazars an 8th Century Turkish tribe, (according to King Joseph a King of the Khazars who claimed being their ancestor).

The people who refer to themselves as Ashkenazi Jews (even if they were true blood descendants of Ashkenaz) cannot be Israelites at all and they are also not Semites or Semitic people because they do not descend from Noah's son Shem. They are an Ashkenaz/ Khazar/Turkish tribal people who would have descended from Noah's son Japheth, but not from Shem. Many however are in fact proselytes by their adopting Judaism, and they would not be descendants from either Noah's son Shem or of Japheth. Many Jews speak Yiddish, which is an amalgamated language that originated in the German Rhineland about the end of the tenth century (about the same time as the beginning of the Jewish religion). Most of the "Hebrew" spoken in the Modern Jewish State called Israel is a derivative of Yiddish and is not Paleo (ancient) Hebrew.

Yiddish as spoken by many Jews was influenced and amalgamated by French, Latin, Slavonic, Romance and (increasingly) the English languages, but in essence it is mostly German colored by some Hebrew and written in Hebrew (Aramaic) square characters (read and written from right to left). In other words, Yiddish is a sub-language that comes from the host languages of the many countries where Jews have lived over the years. Yiddish developed because of the desire of Jews to often live segregated lives from the people of their host Countries.

Approximately 90 percent of the 14 million or so Jews living on the globe today call themselves Ashkenazi Jews. The word Ashkenaz, Ashkenazi, or Ashkenazim (plural) is not a generic Hebrew word for Germany, and it is not a place in Germany as some Jews would want non Jews to believe. Doing so hides the Scriptural Ashkenazi connection, since it is proof that Ashkenazi Jews cannot possibly be Semites by a blood-line.

Jew, Sephardim – originally these were called Spanish Jews, but now scattered over the globe. After the Northern Kingdom of Israel was conquered by the Assyrian King Shalmaneser V, in 745-722 BCE, for their sin against Yahweh*(the Sovereign God of the Hebrew Scriptures), the ancient Israelites from the Northern Kingdom were exiled into the country of Assyria, 2 Kings 17:5-7. The Assyrian King imported people groups from his country Assyria to replace the exiled Israelites in order for him to maintain and control the land captured from the exiled Israelites. The Sepharvaim of Assyria is one of these people groups, along with some Cuthahites, and Arrahites, 2 Kings 17:24. These people miscegenated and inter- racial mingled with each other along with Edomite people who had migrated Northward from Idumea (field of Edom) after the Israelites were exiled. The Sephardim Yahudim are a mongrel people whose descent comes from a mixture of these Assyrian people possibly with some of the escaped Israelites, but also strongly mixed with Edomite blood. The original land area also became of mixed character from this diversity of people, 2 Kings 17:24-41. During the time of the Messiah Yahshua (also called Jesus), these Sephardim people were known as Samaritans.

The Sephardim Jews are also a mixture of the Assyrian people who descended from the Canaanites (the people who colonized Carthage). Following the sack by Rome, they adopted the Sepharvaim or Sephardim name and they constitute about 5% of the people calling themselves Jews. The Sephardim Jews speak Latino, a mixture of Spanish and Hebrew, and have developed their own form of Judaism. The Sephardim Jews migrated West through Egypt, then North into Spain from the ancient land area of Yahud and Samaria before, during, and after the destruction of the City of Jerusalem by the Romans in 70 CE. Today the Sephardim Jews are still associating themselves by using their ancient Sephardim name. Sephardim Jews originally settled in Spain, Portugal, the Eastern Mediterranean, Italy, the Balkans, Salonica and Macedonia, before eventually emigrated into France, England, and into Western Europe. Unlike the Ashkenazi Jews who have no historical roots, a national claim, or a racial tie whatsoever to any part of Palestine or to what was the Southern Kingdom of Yah. The true descendants of the Sepharviam Yahudim did originate from Northern Palestine. Most were living in Samaria which was in the land area from which the Northern Kingdom of Israel was exiled 721 BCE under the conquest of King Shalmaneser V of the ancient kingdom of Assyria, and were known as Samaritans during that time. The Sephardim /Sepharviam Jews are not of pure Hebrew/Israelite blood since they are not of the tribe of Yahudah or of the tribes of Israel. They were called Yahudim as inhabitants or persons living in the land area of Palestine originally occupied by the ancient Northern Kingdom of Israel. The Sephardim Jews like the Ashkenazi Jews are not a Semitic people. The word Sephardim is not a Biblical Hebrew word for Spain, but the name has become associated with Spain, because many Sephardim people organized as a distinctive religious group while in Spain. The remaining Jews (about 5 percent) have an unknown history, most are likely proselytes to the religion of Judaism.

Note: *The exiled ancient Israelites from the original Northern Kingdom of Israel (the 10 ½ tribes) exiled from the land about 721 BCE, never returned to their ancient original land of Palestine because they become a prosperous and huge number of people while dwelling in Assyria. Eventually these exiled Israelites migrated over the Caucasus Mountains, and became known as Caucasian, and over many years lost their Israelite connections. Yet it was the descendants of the ancient Hebrew tribes that subsequently formed the British, European, Scandinavian, and Great Western European Caucasian Nations. Many were forced to adopt the Roman Catholic religion of Christianity about 325 CE, during the time much of Western Europe and Britain remained under the rule of the Roman Emperor Constantine. Even in this day many descendants of the ancient Scriptural Israelites are still stuck in Constantine's Roman Catholic Christianity, a religion that has over the years accommodated, and has become amalgamated with many primitive pagan religions. True Israel remains lost and are among all the nations of the Globe until the time appointed for them by Yahweh.

Judaism - the Modern Religion of Jews

Present day Modern Judaism was formally developed into its basic cultic (ritualistic) structured form about 1,000 years ago, (according to Jewish history) when an man by the name of Rabbenu Gershon a Khazar of Mainz Germany, published a ban on bigamy for religious Jews. Rabbenu Gershon is also thought to be the origin of the title "Rabbi" that has been adopted by many Jewish leaders that follow his teachings of Judaism.

This time in Jewish history marks the recorded beginning of the organized Jewish Ashkenazi sect and the Franco-German halachic creativity (loose interpretations) of the Hebrew Scriptures. Gershon thereby established the beginning of what is now the modern cultic religion of Judaism, ignoring many of the original Scriptural precepts found in the Hebrew Scriptures replacing them with man-made customs and ideology.

Modern Judaism is greatly influenced by the Babylonian Talmud, an ancient pagan ritualistic system of various extreme (some would call sick) opinions, interpretations, codes, rules, and numerous fabricated non-Scriptural regulations, along with the Kabala which is basically a collection of mysticism formulated from a mixture of many previous primitive pagan customs and cultures that date back thousands of years. Judaism as a religion today has significantly perverted the Hebrew Scriptures and is not at all similar to the precepts outlined for ancient true Israelites as found in the Hebrew Scriptures. In Judaism, the writings in the Talmud and the Kabala supersede the writings of the Hebrew Bible. In other words, for the Jew, the opinions of their sages, the written Talmud, and the opinions found in the Kabala are more important and authoritative than what is written in the Hebrew Scriptures. In Judaism, customs and culture have become superior to the Bible.

The name Israel, (Israelites)

The Hebrew name "Israel" means to strive, to overcome, and to rule with El (or Al). El is a short form of the word Elohim (or Alueim) and has the Hebrew meaning of mighty-ones. The name Isra-el was given to Jacob as a new name when he strove and overcame with El, Gen. 32:28. Israel became the name of the Unified Nation that originated from the 12 sons of Jacob under Moses. However, after the division of the Kingdom of Israel (in about 930 BC), the name Israel came to refer only to the Northern Kingdom of Israel while the Southern Kingdom was known as the Kingdom of Yahud. The term Israel in Scripture can refer to the 12 tribes as a collective whole, or to the Northern Kingdom of Israel (the 10 ½ tribes).

After the exile into Assyria and during the Diaspora of 721 BCE, and after the migration of Israel North into Europe from Assyria, the Scriptures refer to these Israelites as the “lost tribes.” The Country formed in 1948 by Jews, known as Israel today or the “Israeli” people who are calling themselves the “Jewish State” have little in common with the ancient Israelites of the Hebrew Scriptures except for the territory that the Modern State called Israel is occupying. Israel as a Scriptural identifiable people group remains dispersed among all the nations of the globe and is still considered “lost.” This dispersed Israel has become such a huge population that it cannot be numbered, and will never again physically fit in the ancient "promised Land." This is all a fulfillment of *Yahweh’s promise to Abraham in Gen. 14:1-3.

The Palestinians people living in the area controlled by the Jews are a mixture of Arabs from the original Palestinian people, some descending from the ancient Philistines, and some are quite likely descendants of the residual of the actual Hebrew tribes of the ancient Scriptural Israelites. In a unique historical twist the name "Palestine" has become the familiar name for all the land that was at one time known as the "Holy Land." The word Palestine is a derivative from the word Philistia that formed from the word Philistine(s) these were in fact, the original inhabitants of the land area, before the conquest by the ancient Israelites of the Hebrew Scriptures.

Present day true Israelites are an independent historical Adamic people group. Many of these “lost” Israelites are currently of the Christian belief, and are in fact comprised of all the true 12 tribes of Ancient Scriptural Israel. The descendants of these Israelites are now completely scattered throughout the globe, and will always be living among the nations of the globe. The Jutes, Danes, Saxons, Angles, Vikings, Celts, and Norman's are the people that originally comprised Israel of the Assyria Diaspora. The Central and Western European Nations were established and formed from these Adamic Caucasian Israelite people descending from the original tribes of the 745-721 BCE Diaspora. From them the free European nations of the globe originated.

What on earth is a Judeo - Christian?

The term "Judeo - Christian" is a complete misnomer. It is a very miss-leading term that can only be loosely associated with the common belief in One Almighty Sovereign Creator Being (or monotheism, the belief in one God). Even using this understanding Judaism and Christianity has nothing in common. Christians believe that their one God is composed of three persons existing in the one being, called the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. The Trinitarian belief is not monotheism, or Judeo. The belief in one God or one Supreme Being, however, “true monotheism” is shared by other religions including Islam. Judaism remains strongly anti-Christian due in part to the Christian belief in a Trinity; the addition by Christians of the Greek New Testament writings as the inspired word of God, and the belief that the prophet Jesus was God incarnate. Judaism however, does not adhere or follow even the most obvious principles taught in the Hebrew Scriptures, but it adds the writings of the Talmud and the Kabala as foundational documents to their religious belief. Additions to the Scriptures are forbidden, (Duet. 4:2).

Jews are wise not to promote their anti-Christian belief because the Jewish State receives approximately three billion dollars of US aid annually and is in debt to America by over 100 billion dollars. It is very likely that some of this money has been used to develop their arrogant Socialistic Apartheid State. Also, by using US government aid Jews have been able build a huge Middle Eastern war machine, and have a stock-pile of weapons of mass destruction (nuclear). Since 1947 CE Jews have stolen land from the aboriginal Palestinian/Arab/Israelite people; they have destroyed their olive groves; their economy and their homes, and they have influenced gullible ignorant Americans as well as the US Congress to support all of this deliberate destruction. All of this comes under the false claim of “the need for Jewish security.” Yet, Jews in the Jewish State are by their continued actions inviting terrorism on themselves from the many desperate people living in Jewish occupied territory. Those living in occupied territory are prisoners without hope toward regaining their ancestral homelands and have nothing to lose by their resistance. The Jewish State has violated every UN mandate for a Jewish/Palestinian homeland since 1948 CE. To this day Jews continue to oppress and destroy their Palestinian/Arab/Israelite neighbors.

The one-sided support by the US Government for the Jewish State has developed and promoted hatred against the United States Government by oppressed people throughout the Middle-East and the globe. The America that was at one time in history the most envied and generous Nation of the globe, has become the most hated of bully nation-builders, at this writing saddled with Obama, a President that has no clue of what his foreign policy is, and the arrogant direction that appears to be leading toward WWIII.

What does all this say about the Christian leaders of America's Churches or about the Jewish paid for and controlled members of the US Congress? Until the Jewish State begins to abide by the many UN mandates that it has ignored; withdraws from stolen Palestinian lands; agrees to a sovereign Palestinian State equal in land area to a Jewish State; begins to show consideration, compassion, and kindness to their neighbors (a clear Biblical mandate found in the 10 Commandments), and until America begins to treat the oppressed Palestinian/Arab/Israelite people on an equal footing with the Jews in the rouge State called Israel, America will certainly continue to be a target by those who view it as a primary source supporting their oppression and misery.

In March 2002, it was been reported that 67 percent of the Palestinians in the territory illegally occupied or controlled by Israel were living under the poverty level of two dollars a day. This percent of poverty is likely much higher now in 2015, since the recent destruction. This contributes to the great sense of despair for the Palestinian/Arab/Israelite people that has since the mid-1980's hastened the rise of global extremist groups, and now ISIS. The Jews are simply reaping what they have sown on their neighbors for 66 years by actions that have been completely void of even the most basic of righteous Biblical principles, all supported by America and America's ignorant Christians. Jews have proven themselves not to friends of the American people, these are leaches on Americans. Nothing is better for the Jewish State, than to have Arab States at war with each other. War torn neighboring States will always be of benefit to the Jewish State, since it keeps them in poverty and unbalanced from on-going conflicts.

Americans must not allow the Jewish State to promote wickedness against other Sovereign States around the globe, especially against the Iranian people through Jewish financial or political influence. To continue to do so could come at great cost to the American people. Any coming terrorism or war is simply demonstrating wrath against America and is likely a direct result of the oppressive and murderous tactics and policies perpetrated by United States, largely caused by bad influence from the Israeli Government, and its imposition against other nations having different cultures or religious beliefs.

Final Comments

According to Jewish sources (from the Jewish Central Bureau of Statistics), the total world population of Jews today is about 14 Million. However, the people of Ancient Israel, those from the original Scriptural Israelite Diaspora of 721 BCE, now number in the hundreds of millions and they are now an innumerable population all a fulfillment of the promise to Abraham in Gen. 14:1-3. This historical fact is recorded by the Yahudi Historian Josephus in his "Antiquities of the Yahudim" Book XI, Chap. V, 2. Where he states the following: "wherefore there are but two tribes in Asia and Europe subject to the Romans, while the ten tribes are beyond Euphrates till now, and are an immense multitude, and not to be estimated by numbers." This is hardly a statement which can be said of today's fourteen million Jews well over 2,000 years after Josephus wrote this in his record book! If the descendants of Scriptural Israel's immense multitude could not be estimated by numbers over 2,000 years ago by Josephus, one can only imagine just how vast the population of Scriptural Israel is today.

The information in this document is provided to promote truth and to counter the false and deceptive Jewish global propaganda effort to obtain domination and Global control. As has been shown, the truth shows that Jews are basically impostors to the Scriptural Israelites and are simply another religious group.

Jews use gullible “Christians” and Western Governments of countries like Great Britain, Western Europe and the United States and Canada to do their dirty work using their Military; their Arms, and their wealth in their attempt to achieve this global domination and control. Jews have been at this domination attempt since before WWI and have infiltrated the entire political arms of many Governments by rewarding corrupt and ignorant politicians amiable toward their global cause. They have done this by using generous donations for the re-election of pro-Jew politicians orchestrated by Jewish financed committees like AIPAC - The American Israel Public Affairs Committee, and AJC - the American Jewish Committee. Jews now own and control major News media’s and run the world’s largest Banks. Because of their arrogant attitude, and because the Jewish State has become maligned far from what are known to be basic moral Scriptural principles, the word “Jew(s)” has become a word reflecting an undesirable people group. The US Government contributes to this by giving this corrupt, apartheid, anti-Christian and soon to be isolated and walled-in State billions of dollars every year borrowed from creditors like communist China, all borrowed money that America’s youth are going to be burdened for many years to pay back.

Since the beginning of the occupation of Palestinian land the Jewish State has always been the instigator of war against others by the policy of always attacking their neighbors first. Why does this imposter Jewish State now want to instigate a new war with Iran? Such could drag America into a new conflict with a country that is likely a homeland for millions of Scriptural Israelite blood descendants living in Iran since the capture of ancient Jerusalem by the ancient Babylonia/Persian Kingdom in 587 BCE?

A “true” Israelite

A “True Israelite” is one that keeps *Yahweh’s Covenant/Contract (the 10 Commandments), see Deut. 5:2-22. If a “stranger” (an Israelite of an unknown tribe) keeps the “Covenant/Contract” (see Isaiah 56: 6-7); becoming a True Israelite and a member of *Yahweh’s house-hold by doing so, it would also stand that it had nothing at all to do with tribal identity; a known blood line, or living on a particular piece of land. The Hebrew Scriptures teaches that becoming a True Israelite and the key to “life” has everything to do with living righteously; becoming faithful to the principles found in the Hebrew Scriptures; keeping the Covenant/Contract, the 10 Commandments (Deut. 5:2-22) that *Yahweh made with the ancient Scriptural Israelites, (see also Matt. 19:16-17). The Jews living in the State called Israel have demonstrated the exact opposite by their ongoing actions of terror; theft and oppression against the Palestinian people, (their neighbors) who are actually the rightful native owners of the Lands called Palestine.

To summarize, many Palestinians are quite likely the actually remnants of the original Scriptural Israelite/Yahudim still trying to live on what is left of their ancient ancestral lands. Jews on-the-other-hand, have never been descendants of the Scriptural Israelites and did not come to Palestine until the early 1900’s. This makes them illegal immigrants to the land and foreigners that are simply masquerading as descendants of the ancient Scriptural tribes of “Covenant/Contracted” True Israel.

Yahweh, Yah - the Sovereign name of the Almighty Creator of all: (Hebrew) = YHWH, YH, Yahweh, (Yah-short form) the transliterated compound name which means “He-is, or He Exists in Hebrew.” The name YHWH is the personal proper name of the Almighty Sovereign Power being (the true Creator) as revealed in the Hebrew Scriptures, NOT the word God, (Exodus 3:14-15). It is “YHWH” (written in English characters) or “Yahweh” as a transliterated name when read in English Sovereign name Bibles.
