

SCRIPTURAL STATEMENT OF BELIEF

Assembly of Yahweh, Cascade, an Assembly of True Israel, Rev. Sept 22. 2016

We of the Assembly of Yahweh, Cascade, are True Israelite Yahwists. Only “True” Israelites adhere to the original Scriptural Hebraic belief of Yahwism as it was held by the ancient Scriptural Israelites. The term “Yahwistic” means “in harmony with Yahwism.” The words Yahwism, Yahwists, and Yahwistic, all get their origin and meanings from the Hebrew name of the Almighty Sovereign Creator Power named YHWH (pronounced as YaHWeH). For more on the Creator’s name see the paragraph “The Creator’s Name below.” Yahwism is the original religious belief held by the ancient tribes of Israel, and only by those who are “True” Israelites. There are many that use the title “Israel” in their name but only those that use the word “True” with the title Israel(ites) adhere to Yahwism, the ancient Hebraic Belief.

Preface

The following Statements of Belief are based upon the foundational writings of the Hebrew Scriptures but we omit the Book of Esther which is a fictional Jewish writing without historical basis and void of any inspired words. We also accept and include in our foundational writings portions of the historical Greek writings commonly referred to as the Greek New Testament (NT). We include the letters most likely to have been originally penned by direct witnesses, and some of the historical events recorded in the Synoptic Gospels. Some of the sayings and teachings of the First Century Prophet to Israel named Yahshua the anointed (incorrectly known as Jesus the Christ) may have some value. We judge writings New Testament writings reliable only when the teachings in them are confirmed to follow the principles first established in the Hebrew Scriptures. How to test a Prophet

We also include some writings from the Greek New Testament that are reasonably attributed to, and authored or penned by the chosen and taught Apostles of Yahshua. We do not accept the writings of the Pharisee Paul/Saul of Tarsus as reliable or authoritative for formulating doctrine, except in the few places where they may follow the clear teaching principles of the Hebrew Scriptures or as taught by the Prophet Yahshua. We do not recognize Paul/Saul as having been numbered among the 12 Apostles (see Acts 1:21-26). We consider Paul/Saul to be a want-to-be self appointed false Apostle and not in any way inspired by YHWH. At times we do use Paul/Saul’s writings as examples of First Century influence and of his re-construction of ancient primitive pagan beliefs like human sacrifice to please the gods. Such beliefs are a simply a continuum of ancient Pharisaic traditions mixed in with primitive pagan beliefs that misrepresent and falsely color the historical Yahwistic beliefs of ancient Scriptural Israel. The historic Yahwistic beliefs of ancient Scriptural Israel originate from Israel’s paternal forefathers Abraham, Isaac, through Jacob/Israel as confirmed by the inspired and chosen Scriptural Prophets. These beliefs and the principles are only found in the writings of the Hebrew Scriptures. They are not found in the Greek writings, not in the Jewish Talmud or Kabala, not in the Book of Mormon, not in the Koran, or in any other man-made writings or any other religious belief system.

Reliability of the Hebrew Scriptures and the Greek writings:

All common English translations of today are in reality 'interpretations' of the original Hebrew or Greek language. We have discovered that all English translations and interpretations contain errors. Some even contain deliberate deception, and some have been re-worded or translated to support particular preconceived doctrines developed by men. We believe in the diligent study of the Scriptures using where possible the original languages of Ancient Hebrew, Aramaic, and Koine Greek, with all available comparative studies, and with the use of various translations and interpretations. We also support the use of all available comparative internet resources for study references. See How to study Scripture

We believe that the proper definition of a word in the ancient language will be directly related to the culture of the time, where and when the writing was written. A written word may have different meanings depending upon the culture that is using it. In order to understand the correct definition of the Hebrew words from the ancient Hebrew language, it is important that we first understand the ancient Hebrew culture. For this reason we strive to also understand the customs and culture of the ancients when we study the ancient Hebrew Scriptures or the Greek writings for revealed truth.

We believe that only the Hebrew Scriptures contain the preserved record; the reliable history; the foundational and infallible authoritative instructions from YHWH as delivered through His prophets for His elect and chosen people of ancient Israel. The Hebrew Scriptures, except for the fictional book of Esther and some of the so-called wisdom stories like Job, have been preserved by Him to provide ancient Israel and “True Israelites” today with the knowledge of His attributes, understanding, wisdom, and truth, (Psalm 119:97-104; Deut. 6:4-9, 8:3). Those who choose to trust in Him; live in accordance with His will, demonstrate their faithfulness, live righteously, and who desire to keep His Sabbath and the 10 Commandments (the original Covenant/Contract with True ancient Israel) will receive His protection, and will become part of His heavenly household, and upon death gain life everlasting, (II Sam. 22:31; Prov. 30:5, Isa. 56).

There is no doubt that the content of the current Greek New Testament (NT) as it was compiled by the Constantine Roman Catholic Church by the middle of the 3rd Century CE has been re-written through its translation from Aramaic, into Greek, then into Latin and then into English. Some portions of the currently available Greek writings have also have been altered, and whole additions have been added by transcribers to support pagan doctrines under the influence of the Roman Emperor Constantine and his cohorts. Many First Century documents have been hidden or destroyed by the Roman Church and kept from the masses if they did not support their acceptable Doctrine. The Roman Catholic Church that developed under the orders of Constantine has in effect personified many historical but ancient primitive pagan religious concepts and blended them into the personage of the prophet Yahshua (Jesus) of the Greek New Testament.

The Creator's Name:

The personal proper and True Name of the Almighty Sovereign Eternal Creator Power of all, "The "Life-Force" of Adam, the progenitor of Abraham, Isaac, and the descendants of Jacob/Israel, is named YHWH (in Hebrew letters). This name is pronounced (by transliteration) into English as YaH-Weh or YaH-oo-WeH. This is His name as was given BY HIM to us, His people of "True" Israel. This name is to be spoken (as a memorial) to all generations and this name should be made known to and used by all true Yahwistic believers (Exodus 3:15). The name YHWH means "He-Exists" or "He-Is" the "Ever-Living" in Hebrew. We believe that YHWH has also revealed Himself to us as "I AM" (A-HWH) as found in the written record, (Ex. 3:14-15). He says to us A-HWeH (I AM) we say to Him YaH-WeH (He Is). The personal proper name YHWH originates from the Hebrew verb HWH (being, to be, or to Exist). HWH is the Hebrew verb of being in all tenses, the past, the present, and the future). The addition of the prefix "Y" (or Yod) adds the pronoun "He" to the verb "HWH" (see also Strong's H1933).

The Creator's name YHWH is pronounced in English as Yahweh, the German "yes" sound (Yah) connected to the "we" sound from the English word "we-t" omitting the "t" sound. The "weh" sound of the name is NOT pronounced as "way."

We believe that the original Hebrew/Aramaic/Greek names of individuals in Scripture should be correctly transliterated to reflect the sounds of the ancient languages using English letters (as applicable, and where possible) and not deliberately mistranslated, replaced or substituted with unsupported English words, as has become prevalent in many English Bible translations. Substituting Hebrew names hides the many important Hebrew meanings of these names many of which have important compound word meanings.

YHWH is the Almighty Sovereign Eternal Creator Power and the Life-Force Essence, He is the logic that fills the endless Universe, fills our globe, and all things that exist, (Gen. 1:1-31, 2:21-25). YHWH is commonly referred to in error by the term pagan term God. YHWH has declared Himself in the Hebrew Scriptures to be Echad meaning One entity (Deut. 6:4), and He has further revealed Himself to be Father, and is the one (set-apart) "Essence." Father as in Deut. 32:6; Ps. 2:7, 68:5, 89:26. Life-Force as in Gen. 1:2, 6:3. The "Father" YHWH and Holy Spirit (Life-Force) are One and the same Creator-Life-Force Ever-Living eternal being. We reject the Christian Trinity or the belief of the "three persons" existing in the One Spirit being, or in a oneness "God-head" being. Believing in such a being is false, and it is a primitive pagan belief that is completely foreign to the Scriptures. The "Trinity" concept comes from ancient pagan religions.

YHWH rules over all that has ever existed, exists now and will ever exist; He only is omnipotent, omnipresent, unchangeable, and all-knowing Power; is above all and to whom only we owe our reverence and worship (Deut. 6:14-15). He is the only true Alueim (the collective Powers); He is One, (Isa. 43:10, 44:6). "Hear O Israel, YHWH our Alueim (Powers), YHWH is One!" (Deut. 4:35, 39, 6:4). We believe there is no other Power or Life-Force but the One. We believe that YHWH is in full and absolute control over all of Eternity and over all of His creation at all times (Isa. 46:10); that YHWH is the Original Originator Creator and Life-Force governing both good and bad, (Isa. 45:7, 54:16; Prov.16:4); that He controls both.

We believe that the words "Holy Spirit" are English adjectives describing the mighty power and influence of YHWH and are a reference to His name YHWH, since YHWH is a pure non-physical Being. YHWH is, "Holy Spirit" the Life-Force. YHWH is without a physical body and without any physical properties, yet He has revealed Himself to us (True Israel) through His many attributes. There is only One Holy (set apart) Almighty Spirit Power Life-Force, His name is YHWH, there is no other. "Thus saith YHWH the King of Israel, and Israel's redeemer, YHWH of hosts; I am the first, and I am the last; and besides me.....there are no Alueim!" (Gods or powers), (Isaiah 44:6).

General and Special Revelation:

YHWH has provided two distinct records or sources through which He reveals His uniqueness, His character, His attributes, and His Sovereignty to us, His chosen created intellectual beings.

The First, is by the physical record as found in what is commonly referred to as the Natural Sciences and is a “General Revelation” (Ps. 19:1-7). This physical/natural scientific record is an example to us of order, of design, of planning, and of the purpose for the entire Universe of all that exists or will ever exist. This is undeniable physical evidence of YHWH’s eternal existence and His Sovereignty over all of it.

The Second is by the written record as is found recorded in the Hebrew Scriptures. This written record is YHWH’s “Special Revelation.” It is a summarized historical record of His dealing with specific selected individuals and a specific chosen people and it includes the brief history of the special creation of Adamic-man (Gen. 5:1). In this record we find His covenant/contract with a particular chosen people beginning with the descendants of Adamic-man, and then continuing through the specific Adamite that was named “Adam” that continues through his descendants Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob who was renamed Israel. The written record of YHWH’s Special Revelation is an account preserved and specifically provided for the ancient descendants of the Hebrew people called Israelites and for their progeny (Ps. 19:7-11). We believe however, that this record is also useful to all those to whom YHWH chooses to reveal and understand it.

These two records, the “General Revelation” and the “Special Revelation” are complementary and they must be in complete and in full harmony with each other. The physical record is the undeniable evidence of a superior being in design and in planning. The “General Revelation” is the recorded writings that have been preserved through YHWH’s power and authority by His chosen messengers the Prophets, the Patriarchs, and the inspired descendants of Jacob/Israel. Together these two records contain the necessary and complete source for all that is true and forms the complete and the sound foundation for our belief, for our understanding, for our wisdom, for our knowledge, and for worship. These records also provide us with the necessary answers, instructions, and the laws that we need in order to gage all of the issues of life and civility and to live a righteous moral and productive life in accordance with the recorded written will of YHWH.

We believe that the nature of YHWH and His revelation to Adamic-man cannot be found in any “Oral Traditions” formulated by men, or by any additions to or by the mystic craftiness of man-made religions. All man-made religions are subject to the corrupt nature and pride of men. The true nature of YHWH can only be found in the two records that He has given His Creatures. This will always be confirmed in us by His Life-Force Power (neshamah) that enters into and subsequently dwells deep within all True Israelite believers, and in those that sincerely seek Him and look for truth.

Man, Adamic Man:

The word 'Adam', aw-dam (in Hebrew) means ruddy, or red, to show blood in the face, i.e., to blush, or turn rosy (see Strong's 119). Therefore we believe Adam and his wife Eve were of the white race, commonly known as of the Caucasian race; the race we will call Adamic-man. Adam was called a son of YHWH, (Luke 3:38). Adam and his descendants are called the children of YHWH (Psalm 82:6; Hos. 1:10).

Adamic-man in general terms, were originally created by the Alueim (Mighty Ones, celestial beings), under the direct authority of YHWH. All were originally created to be good, upright and formed under the image (in the shadow) and in the likeness (design) of the Alueim (the celestial appointed powers, also called angels), see Gen. 1:26-27. Each Adam-man by voluntary choice has been given the gift to choose life by following the principles YHWH has provided, but also have the ability by their own choice to fall into disobedience and thereby incur punishment or even physical death, a spiritual separation from his Father Creator (Gen. 2:17, 3:6-8). However, each also has the ability to mature by being obedient, to become righteous and just. As a mature son, or daughter, each can choose to walk in a sinless life of obedience to YHWH’s will, and become His eternal sons/daughters, and part of the heavenly House-hold of YHWH.

All living creatures and races of man-kind are trichotomous beings. In other words, each is made of body and spirit (breath) which when combined forms the soul. The soul is the sensation resulting from the combination of an organic body with breath, and provides the mental and physical abilities we commonly refer to as "physical life" life with intelligence, (Gen. 1:24, 25). But Adamic-man and his descendants (kind after kind) are the only ones to whom "neshamah" (Strong's 5397) was given, (see Gen. 1:26; 2:7). Neshamah is more than just having intelligence. Neshamah is the unique Life-Force essence of YHWH Himself. It is neshamah from YHWH indwelling in Adamic-man that distinguishes Adamic-man from all the other families (or races) of man-kind on the Globe (Deut. 7:6, 10:15; Amos 3:2).

We believe that many diverse families (or races) of pre-Adamic man-kind (Iysh, eesh in Hebrew) have been created by YHWH, during the sixth age of creation, all before YHWH formed/created Adam-man. Some of these races have long ago perished or been eliminated from the globe. Adam and his wife were specifically formed at the end of the sixth age (which ended approx. 6,000+ years BCE) according to the genealogical history of Adam recorded in the Hebrew Scriptures. According to the Hebrew Scriptures all the current races on the globe have their diverse purpose in the ultimate plan of YHWH. One race is not inferior or superior to the other, for all the races of man-kind were originally formed as good, (Gen. 1:31). All races however are not at all equal, and were specifically created NOT to be equal, or with the same purpose in the ultimate plan of the Creator.

Pre-history Flood:

We believe that in an ancient time some of the man-kind “pre-Adamic” races that were still dwelling on the earth at the time of Adam-man forced themselves onto the daughters of Adamic-man (Gen. 6:1-2). This resulted in a corrupted race of people who were living continuously wicked lives, (Gen. 6:5-6; 11-12). This wickedness and adulterating race became intolerable to YHWH and it resulted in His subsequent destruction by way of an area wide flood commonly called “Noah’s flood” (Gen. 6:13, 14). The globe during its early formation was at one time covered with water, as proven by the scientific record, but the flood recorded in Gen. 7 as “Noah’s flood” was not global. It was however significant enough that it resulted and destroyed the inter-racial wicked descendants of man-kind with Adam-man on the land within the area covered by the flood. Noah was a righteous man, pure in his genealogy (Gen. 6:8-9); his wife, his three sons, and their wives were saved.

The flood event of Noah is recorded in the history of many pre-Adamic races; however, many of them were not directly affected by the flood, yet have knowledge of it. The flood was limited in area because the physical scientific record, the “General Revelation” along with the historical records of the flood recorded by many pre-Adamic man-kind races do not support the global flood theory. The word “earth” when used in English translations (as in to “cover the whole earth” does not translate into word “globe.” The word “earth” is a reference to the soil, the ground or the land area covered by the flood water. In other words, the flood at the time on Noah was regional and did not cover our entire planet.

YHWH renewed the Adamic line of Seth (after the flood) through Noah, who was considered by YHWH to be righteous and “blameless” in his Adamic genealogy (Noah was perfect, complete, and pure in lineage), (Gen. 6:8-9). YHWH established a covenant with Noah and his family never again to destroy the land with such a flood (Gen. 9:8). From Noah and his three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth, the whole land area that was covered by those flood waters was repopulated with the Adamic people of the line of Seth (Gen. 9:19). From the three sons of Noah, according to their generations the white Adamic people re-populated the entireland that was flooded.

The Covenants, Abraham through the prophet Yahshua:

YHWH chose Abraham, a descendant of Shem, a descendant of Seth, a son of Adam, (Gen. 11:10-26) from the Adamic race and made an unconditional unilateral promise to him of greatness, of lands, of seed (descendants), and of blessings (undeserved favor), (Gen. 12:1-3). The same promise (Covenant) is reaffirmed and renewed in Gen. 15:1-21; 17:4-21; 22:15-18; and given to Isaac son of Abraham, (Gen. 26:3-24) given to Jacob/Israel son of Isaac, (Gen. 28:13-15; 35:9-12). The “land-grant” covenant eventually grew from an area walked by Abraham, to an area that he could view, to the entire globe. The descendants of Abraham are now found over the entire globe.

Yahshua Mashiach (Jesus, a Messiah) the Prophet to First Century dispersed Israel:

The proper personal and True Name of the First Century prophet to dispersed Israel is Yahshua (some call him Jesus). The Hebrew name Yahshua means the “Salvation of Yahweh” or “Yahweh Saves” in English (pronounced as Yah-oo-shua). This also means, that Yahshua’s message to us through the meaning of his name is that “YHWH is the only Savior” (Matt. 19:17).

Yahshua was an anointed one, a “Mashiach” (or Messiah). The Hebrew name Yahshua should be used by and made known to all true believers, not the name “Jesus.” <http://assemblyoftrueisrael.com/Documents/YahshuatoJesus.pdf> We also do not accept the miss-translated and miss-represented name “Yeshua, or Y’shua.” Both these forms are used by Jews to hide the name of YHWH which is found in the name Yahshua, the name of the son. The name “Jesus” is an adulterated form that comes from the Hebrew name Yahshua transliterated into Greek, then into Latin, then into English. In the transliteration process the true meaning of the name is lost. Yahshua is NOT YHWH the Father, the Sovereign. All those that do the will of the Father YHWH become known as “sons/daughters” of Yahshua and members of the heavenly house-hold, (Matt. 7: 21; 12: 50).

Yahshua was born of Mary and Joseph, and was a physical descendant (a seed) of King David as promised (Isa. 7:14; Matt. 1:23; Luke 1:30-37). Yahshua received the authority of a first born son through his obedience and commissioned by YHWH’s full acceptance (Matt. 3:16-17). From then on, Yahshua became the appointed anointed Prophet to First Century Israel through whom YHWH revealed and made himself known.

We believe that the Prophet Yahshua was prophesied as the coming seed (physical descendant) of King David (2 Sam. 7:12). He is the one prophesied who would build the house and re-establish the house-hold for YHWH’s name (2 Sam. 7:13); that Yahshua he is the one through whom the throne of King David over the spiritual house of Israel would be established into the ages (2 Sam. 7:16).

The Hebrew Scriptures reveals to us how YHWH sends out His Prophets at His appointed times to save His people Israel from error, and how He delivers them from sin resulting from violations of their covenant/contract with Him when they repent, (Exodus 24:3). The covenant/contract provides blessings for obedience (Deut. 28:1-14) and curses for disobedience (Deut. 28:15-68). Disobedience to the covenant/contract could result in their destruction, but because YHWH is gracious, full of compassion, slow to anger and of great mercy (Ps 145:8). YHWH over and over again provides the means to bring back His people Israel through His appointed Prophets.

The prophet Yahshua was YHWH’s enlightenment to the lost tribes of First Century Israel (Matt. 15:24), living in the land of Yahud (Southern Kingdom) that had become enslaved by the corrupted Edomite priesthood, and by the traditions of the Pharisees (Matt. 4:14-17). Yahshua was sent by YHWH to provide Israel and us (by kinship descent) an example for correct living in obedience to the covenant/contract that we as True Israel must keep with Him. Yahshua also came to announce the “good news” of the Kingdom (meaning to council) of heaven, i.e., Council of YHWH. (Matt. 4:23).

By trusting, believing in, and by becoming ‘doers’ of the word (Matt. 7) and by imitating the life example of obedience to the Father that Yahshua set before us, we as True Israelites can renew our covenant/contract relationship with YHWH our heavenly Father. This involves repentance; learning how to keep the 10 Commandments of the covenant correctly; how to find and reject the additions of men added to the Hebrew Scriptures; how to discard false doctrines, and how to seek and find the correct path that leads to the Kingdom that leads to the path of eternal life. By our faithfulness, we are redeemed by Him, (Matt. 7:21).

In the First Century Yahshua was sent to deliver or rescue the house (house-hold) of Israel from the coming destruction under Rome, (Matt. 15:24). Yahshua came to deliver (save) “those that which was lost, and had lost their way” (Matt. 18:11; Jer. 50:6), and to build the spiritual house (household) of YHWH, II Sam. 7:13). Through his example, he became a light to “re-enlighten” the nations (12 tribes) of Israel and their descendants, and be a glory to “True” Israel, (Luke 2:30-32); and to announce the coming of the Kingdom (council) of heaven, i.e., Council of YHWH. Yahshua prophesied the eminent coming destruction of the Temple (the old but pagan worship system) and of Jerusalem by Rome, (Matt. 24:10), all which was fulfilled in 70 CE.

The Israelites of the First Century who believed in the prophetic message of Yahshua were delivered (saved) from physical destruction leaving the city of Jerusalem before the final advance and occupation of the Roman army; by doing so, they become the last and final Diaspora (dispersion) of Israel. True Israel (the people of YHWH) has subsequently spread throughout all the nations of the globe (Matt. 24).

Yahshua was faithful to his mission and an example on how to keep the 10 Commandments (the Covenant/Contract) of YHWH. The Greek writings and witnesses confirm the indwelling power of YHWH’s Life-Force essence dwelling in him by his miracles (Matt. 11:20-21, 13:58); Because he was faithful to his appointed mission, it resulted in his execution, and by it he give his life as a ransom for many (Matt. 20:28). Yahshua was resurrected from the dead by YHWH (Matt. 28:5-7) for his faithfulness, and become the first born from the dead as was witnessed by the many who saw him following his resurrection (Luke 24:36-40). Yahshua is now exalted to the right hand of YHWH. Power and authority has been given to him (Matt. 28:18).

Redemption, Deliverance (Salvation), Eternal life:

Scripture tells us that the Almighty Sovereign Eternal Creator Power YHWH is the only Redeemer and Savior of collective Israel, Isaiah 43:10-11. The whole of Israel includes the twelve original tribes of Israel and their descendants that have been scattered among all the nations of the globe since 721 BCE. Israel includes both the House of Israel and the House of Yahudah, both are “lost” in history until their time of their redemption and salvation as individuals and then someday together as a restored dispersed nation living among all the nations of the Globe, (Ezk. 6:8, 11:17; Hosea 1:9-11).

The only hope of redemption for this collective and lost Israel, and for all of man-kind, comes by turning toward YHWH the Eternal. Through Him we can be forgiven and receive the pardoning of our sins through sincere repentance before Him. By returning toward the correct keeping of YHWH’s 10 Commandments (the Covenant/Contract) and living righteously, the repentant sinner can become an heir (a returning prodigal) to the house-hold of YHWH and inherit eternal life. (Matt. 19:16-17).

We believe in the words of Yahshua when he answered this specific question: “And behold, one came to him and said, Teacher, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life? And he said unto him, Why askest thou me concerning that which is good? One there is who is good: but if thou wouldest enter into life, keep the commandments.” (Matt. 19:16-17).

We believe that the inward evidence of one’s repentance, redemption and subsequent faithfulness to YHWH is the direct witness within them of YHWH’s Life-Force essence, (Matt. 7:21, 24; 12:50). The outward evidence of repentant “True Israel” will result in a life of righteous living witnessed by the keeping of YHWH’s Covenant, The 10 Commandments.

We believe that the stranger (the non-Israelite) also has a place in the house-hold of YHWH and to life eternal if he joins himself to YHWH, in the same manner as any Israelite (Isaiah 56:3, 5); “everyone that keeps the Shabbat/Sabbath from polluting it, and taketh hold of my covenant.” (Isaiah 56:6). He (YHWH) will make them joyful in His house (household) of prayer (Isaiah 56:7). When one becomes a keeper of YHWH’s 10 Commandments, the Covenant/Contract with YHWH is re-established, and that individual becomes a newly born “True Israelite” in common with any natural or blood born Israelite, and an heir to the all the promises.

The errors of Replacement theology:

Yahshua (Jesus) was never a Human Sacrifice (a human penalty payment) for the pleasure of YHWH or for obtaining YHWH’s forgiveness. Yahshua was never sent to First Century Israel to become a Human Sacrifice for their sin, or the sins of the globe or for the sin of anyone. The belief in human sacrifice is a pure pagan continuum, and a violation of YHWH’s law to Israel. Furthermore, according to Yahshua himself, he had the authority to forgive the sins of men simply by saying so. He demonstrated this authority by healing a man sick of the palsy (Matt. 9:6). YHWH calls the pagan practice of Human sacrifice something that He hates; that it is an abomination to Him, “for every abomination to YHWH (Yahweh), which he hateth, have they done unto their gods; for even their sons and their daughters they have burnt (sacrificed) in the fire to their gods.” (Deut. 12:30-31).

YHWH tells Israel that Human sacrifice is such a horrible concept to Him, that it did not even come into His mind or to demand it from His people: “They have built also the high places of Baalm (heathen g-d), to burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings unto Baal, which I commanded not, nor spake it, neither came it into my mind.” (Jeremiah 19:4-6). This means that YHWH would never accept His appointed and anointed son Yahshua’s death on a pagan stake as a sacrifice (blood payment) for the forgiveness of another person’s sin, (Psalm 106:37-38; Ezekiel 16:20). The very idea of that YHWH the Almighty Sovereign Creator requires human or animal sacrifice in order to forgive sins is not found in the Hebrew Scriptures.

The Hebrew Scriptures are the foundation of Yahwism and we believe that the principles in it are clear and are consistent. One person cannot die as a payment for the sins of another. This means that the guilt from the sins committed by one person cannot be wiped out by the punishment given to another person. In Exodus 32:30-35, Moses asks YHWH to punish him for the sin committed by the people for making a Golden Calf (an idol). YHWH tells Moses that the person(s) who committed the sin is the person(s) who must receive the punishment. YHWH states this as a basic principle: “Every man shall be put to death [or punished] for his own sins.” (Deuteronomy 24:16). This concept is repeated in the Prophets:

"The soul that sinneth, it shall die... the righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him." (Ezekiel 18:20).

From primitive pagan traditions into Israelite Scriptural Yahwism

Blood sacrifices (penalty payments for sins requiring spilled blood) were never a precondition made before YHWH would or could forgive someone. There are many Scriptural examples that show this, but an important example is found in the Book of Leviticus. It is interesting and enlightening because it comes in the middle of the discussion of sin sacrifices (penalty payments): "If, however, he cannot afford two doves or two young pigeons, he is to bring as an offering (penalty payment) for his sin a tenth of an ephah of fine flour for a sin offering." (Leviticus 5:11-13). It is easy to see that a blood sacrifice, where an animal dies, is not always necessary for the forgiveness of sin. Other items can be and were used for payment. In the Book of Jonah 3:10, Scripture simply states that YHWH saw the works and hearts of the people of Ninevah. Specifically it says that YHWH saw in their works that they stopped doing being wicked, and so YHWH forgave them. There are many other Scriptural examples, but the idea that one needs a blood sacrifice (blood payment), i.e., the killing of a man or of an animal before a sin against YHWH can be forgiven is not found in the Hebrew Scriptures and is of primitive pagan origin.

Satan, devils and demons, hell:

The term "satan" as used in the Hebrew Scriptures simply means "adversary, or opponent." The word in Hebrew is not a "name" but refers to a position someone has taken by becoming an adversary or opponent to someone else. Even YHWH can at times become an "adversary, or an opponent." Compare 2 Sam. 24:1 with the identical account in 1Chron. 21:1. The Hebrew concept of a satan being is radically different from the idea of the Devil or Demons found in the Greek (New Testament) writings. In the Hebrew Scriptures, a satan (an adversary) only has power when so granted by YHWH the Almighty Sovereign Creator Power being Himself. Satan has no authority in and of himself, but is placed in an adversarial position by his Creator YHWH to do what he is told to do. In the Hebrew Scriptures, only YHWH has the supreme power, and only YHWH has the power over good and bad, (see Isaiah 45:5-7).

Note: In the Greek NT Bible the Greek word "daimon" (demon) is associated with the English meaning "to teach" or to "distribute knowledge." This Greek word is where we get our English word "demon-strate" from. In the Greek NT Bible the word "daimon" (demon) has developed into a negative connotation, to refer to a pagan deity (a man-made idol), but historically it was a neutral word with no good or bad connection. The word demon is often mistranslated in error to the English word "devil." However, the Greek word "diabolos" (devil) has the literal English meaning of a "through-thrower" or to "throw-through." The Greek word "bolos" is where we get the English word "ball" from, and the Greek word "dia" means "through" as in the English word "dia-meter." In Greek the word is used as one that "accuses, or slanders" or "maligns" another. In English the word has become "devil" and has been used as a name, often times used interchangeably and incorrectly with the word "demon" or incorrectly as a reference to the word "satan." The words satan, devil, or demon are NOT proper names of individual beings, but are actually "positions" or "attitudes" taken by anyone, a terrestrial (mortal) being, or a celestial (angelic-type). Sometimes used as a reference to conditions or situations where primitive men need to define unexplained bad things or bad events.

In order for someone to believe that a satan, a devil, or a demon, exists with the power and authority to challenge his own Creator, they would also have to believe that there is more than "ONE" Almighty Sovereign Eternal Creator or Eternal Power, (Isaiah 43:10). Such a belief would amount to polytheism, which is foreign to the truth that is found in the Hebrew Scriptures, and of pure pagan origin. Furthermore, it would be an "oxymoron" and completely absurd for YHWH, who is the Almighty Sovereign Eternal Creator Power of all things to be challenged by one of His own created beings, (Isaiah 46:9-10).

To properly understand the Greek NT concept of a satan, a devil, or of demons, it would help to know the culture which fabricated them into the society where they were believed to exist. Demon or devil possession in early Hebrew/Aramaic cultures can be attributed to an ignorance of basic mental and physical infirmities and disease at the time. These misunderstood mental illnesses were also attributed to demon or devil possession at the time of Yahshua (Jesus). Such conditions today can be diagnosed in modern terminology as physical illness. Today many are cured by drugs, yet they involved the same symptoms as was notable in the ancient cultures.

We believe that Yahshua simply took advantage of the vernacular of the time as can be seen in the following passages: Matt. 12:22, "Then was one brought unto him possessed with a devil"... vernacular of the time, "possessed with a devil," Diagnosis today "blind and dumb"; Mark 5:1-5, No man could bind him,...crying, and cutting himself with stones...,

“vernacular of the time, a man with an unclean spirit,” Diagnosis today “a mental condition, insanity, schizophrenia,” Mark 9:17-27, “He teareth himself and he foameth and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away . . .,” vernacular of the time, “hath a dumb spirit,” Diagnosis today “he has epilepsy,” Luke 13:11-17, “A woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself.” Vernacular of the time, “spirit of infirmity,” Diagnosis today “she had arthritis.” See also John 10:20; Mark 3:2, where “he hath a devil and is mad” means simply “he is beside himself.”

There is no such place as an everlasting or eternal place of torture called “Hell” for the wicked, the unbeliever, or the unrepentant sinner. The Hebrew word “Sheol” is the word that is sometimes translated as Hell in English translations, but the word by Hebrew definition means; “grave” or “place of the dead.” It is the place where the body goes when someone dies. It is the same for both the good and bad. The plain fact is that everyone goes to the grave or to “hell” after death.

The Hebrew Scripture does not contain the concept of the eternal “Christian” Hell. Most new translations have completely eliminated the word Hell from the Hebrew Scriptures as honest and better scholarship has demanded. They are now substituting “hell with the correct word “grave.” The importance of this fact cannot be over-emphasized. If a new doctrine does not appear as “seed form” in the foundational books of the Hebrew Scriptures, i.e. the Prophets, the Law, the Psalms, the writings, etc., we will not use it or teach it as a foundational doctrine supported in Scripture.

Judgment and reward according to the Hebrew Scriptures

We believe that built into the heart of every person, in almost every society, and in most religious belief systems, we will find a sense of accountability and a basic fundamental belief that the righteous will be rewarded and the wicked will be punished. This confirms a bred in expectation of judgment: “Far be it from You (YHWH) to do such a thing . . . treating the righteous and the wicked alike. Far be it from you! Will not the Judge (YHWH) of all the earth do right?” (Genesis 18:25) “I Yahweh search the heart and examine the mind, to reward a man according to his conduct, according to what his deeds deserve,” (Jeremiah 17:10). “Does not he who weighs the heart perceive it? Does not he who guards your life know it? Will he not repay each person according to what he has done?” (Proverbs 24:12).

YHWH has written his moral law on the hearts of all man-kind, and it is part of the natural “General Laws” that is given by YHWH to regulate and establish order; that within each there is found an inborn sense that all will be judged in light of that moral law. We believe that YHWH is fully aware of every aspect of our lives and will overlooks nothing in our judgment. Nothing in all creation is hidden from His sight. Everything is uncovered and laid bare before him to whom we must give account. “For YHWH will bring every deed into judgment, including every hidden thing, whether it is good or bad,” (Ecclesiastes 12:14). So yes, There will be a time of judgement, for all in the age to come, at a place and in a time known only to the Almighty Sovereign Creator Power of all.

Circumcision and the Abraham Covenant/Contract:

We believe in the covenant/contract YHWH has with our progenitor Abraham. “As for you, you and your offspring to come throughout the ages shall keep My covenant. Such shall be the covenant between me and you and your offspring to follow which you shall keep: every male among you shall be circumcised. You shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin, and that shall be the sign of the covenant between Me and you” (Gen. 17:6-11). YHWH added this physical sign that Abraham and all his male descendants would carry throughout their generations. In addition, the man and his wife upon seeing the circumcision of the male would be reminded that they as children of Abraham are the people of the Almighty Sovereign Creator, whose revealed name is YHWH and that He is their Alueim (Might One).

We believe that throughout our generations, “every male among you [us] shall be circumcised at the age of eight days. As for the home born slave and the one bought from an outsider who is not of your offspring, they must be circumcised, home born and purchased alike. Thus shall My covenant be marked in your flesh as an everlasting pact. And if any male who is uncircumcised fails to circumcise the flesh of his foreskin, that person shall be cut off from his kin; he has broken My covenant” (Gen. 17:12-14).

The seventh-day Shabbat/Sabbath:

We believe that YHWH paused from His Creation work on the seventh-day (Gen. 2:2), which was an age or period of unknown duration since the physical record indicates many eons of time passed between the various seven ages (Ps 90:4; 2 Peter 3:8). Following this pattern period of ages YHWH instituted the Sabbath as a day of rest for mankind (Mark

2:27), and commanded all Israel to keep the “seventh-day pause” for all generations (Exodus 20:8, 31:14-16; Deut. 5:12-15). The Sabbath is also a sign of YHWH's covenant with His people Israel, (Exodus 31:12-13; Ezk. 20:12, 20). Yahshua confirmed that the seventh day Sabbath remains in effect (Mark 2:27), and that the Sabbath will be kept during this present age (Ezk. 44:24).

We believe that the Sabbath is the day that YHWH has set aside for sacred assembly (Lev. 23:3) and that Yahshua himself assembled on the Sabbath for worship to the Father YHWH (Luke 4:16), and that the early Messianic Israelite assemblies met on the Sabbath for worship, Torah instruction, singing and fellowship among the assembly of true believers.

We believe that the Roman calendar has not disrupted the weekly cycle instituted since creation. The Sabbath (Friday sunset to Saturday sunset) is made for man (Mark 2:27-28) to be a sign that YHWH is our Alueim (Powers) and that we are His people (Exodus 31:13-17). We are to abstain from gainful employment during the Sabbath. Prior to the Sabbath we are to have our houses in order, with heavy baking and meal preparation done as much as possible in advance. In this way, the Sabbath is to be a delight for the entire family (Exodus 20:8-11; Isaiah 58:13-14). As a holy time for physical rest, spiritual fellowship, Bible study, and prayer. The Sabbath it to be the crowning point of the week for every true believer.

YHWH's Annual Shabbat/Sabbaths (Feast Days):

INTRODUCTION - YHWH has established Annual Sabbaths (Feast Days) which are to be observed by his people. Each annual Holy Day is a memorial to some great act or deed of YHWH which He worked in behalf of Israel. He uses these memorials to keep alive the memory of His deeds. In observance of these annual Sabbaths we magnify YHWH's Word in remembrance of His past, present and future works for us. The power of salvation is found in obedience to YHWH's word.

We believe that the Annual Sabbaths can best be understood by us if we bear in mind the preeminence of YHWH over Adamic man. The things that YHWH does have no equal. “His ways are above our ways, his thoughts are above our thoughts” (Isaiah 55:8-9). The things that are impossible with Adamic man are possible with YHWH. There is simply nothing available for us, with our limited concepts to measure our Mighty One. Therefore, we must measure him by himself (Isaiah 40:18-31; Hebrews 6: 13-14). “He sitteth upon the circle of the earth and He has no equal.” We must take heed to the things that YHWH does and speaks to us. These two things are foremost in understanding the annual Sabbaths. What YHWH does is forever; what he says, Adamic man must live by (Psalms 19:9; Eccl. 3:14; Deut. 8:1-3).

We believe that the Annual Sabbaths both memorialize and perpetuate the words and mighty deeds of YHWH. They stand as beacons in the lives of His people Israel. Each Feast also signifies an attribute of YHWH. They serve to teach us of past and future relationships we have, and will have with Him. The Annual Sabbaths are listed and summarized in the 23rd chapter of the book of Leviticus. What follows in this Statement of Belief is a recap of the observance of the Holy Feasts by the Household of YHWH. Observance of the feasts spans a period of seven months beginning with the first month of the year and ending with the seventh month, thus constituting a week of months, or a Sabbath of months (see Leviticus 25:1-8, for an example).

We believe that YHWH gave His Feast Days to Israel should be observed and kept by all their descendants throughout all their generations if possible and that these times are enjoined upon Redeemed Israel today living among the nations of the globe.

We believe that Christmas, Easter, Valentine's Day, etc. are pagan-derived substitutes for the Creator's annual Sabbaths and Feasts, and not to be observed. We are to shun false worship (Deuteronomy 12:29-32) and keep the Scriptural Holy Days of Leviticus 23, which portray the Almighty's past and future dealings with Adamic man; properly keeping these annual occasions produce joy and helps us understand His plan for us.

YHWH's Assembly of True Israel:

We believe the congregation of true and faithful Believers (Redeemed Yisrael/Israel) is the true "Ekklesia (called-out) Assembly." It is the global Assembly of Yahweh, of True Israel, that has been called out from among all the nations to worship YHWH Alueim (Might One) of Israel, of which the most visible is the local Redeemed True Israel Assemblies and home based Fellowships. The physical Assemblies demonstrate the spiritual house (house-hold) of YHWH that Yahshua seed of David, is building for YHWH's name, that was established on the foundation of the Hebrew Scriptures, and upon the words of his Apostles and before them, upon the words of the prophets and messenger of old, (2 Sam. 7:12-16).

We believe the Assembly of the True "Ekklesia (called-out), is an agency of YHWH Alueim (Might One) of Israel, with the specific appointment to fulfill the Great Commission by bringing the message of deliverance given to Yahshua by YHWH to all the nations (house-holds) of Israel that are found throughout the nations of the globe (Matt. 28:18-28). The message is for each to become part of a cooperative body of believers in which each may worship YHWH Alueim (Might One) of Israel; to be the means by which Yahshua is building the house (house-hold) of believers for YHWH, and to become perfected by imitating YHWH's Son (Matt. 12:50).

We believe that the Jutes, Danes, Saxons, Angles, Vikings, Celts, Normans, and most all of the white European 'Caucasian' people are the Israel of the Diaspora. The Ruach HaKodesh (Holy Spirit) is now indwelling many of these believers so that they are coming to know YHWH their Almighty Sovereign Creator. Yahudah and Israel, the two Kingdoms, have now become one nation (of the Diaspora), the Kingdom (house-hold) of YHWH.

End-time Prophecy (Eschatology): How to test a Prophet

We believe that all Prophecies in the Hebrew Scriptures were fulfilled by the culmination of the destruction of Yerusalem (Jerusalem) and the third temple by the Roman Army in AD 70. This event occurred exactly as was prophesied by the Prophet Yahshua as recorded in Matt. 24. This ended the Temple system and the age of cultic (ritualistic) Yahudaism, which will never again return. Note: every mention of "the last days" or equivalents [last times, last hour, etc.] in the Greek writings (New Testament) refers to the First Century. There are no exceptions. Note: a typical generation of that time is approximately 40 years.

We believe that the coming of the Prophet Yahshua was a fulfillment to the words spoken by the Prophet Nathan to King David, that from David's seed (a physical descendant) would come one who would build a house (house-hold) for the name of YHWH; that through this coming one the throne of David's Kingdom would be established forever (2 Sam. 7:13); that this heir would be a son of His father YHWH (2 Sam. 7:14); one from whom the mercy of Yahweh (Yahweh) would never depart (2 Sam. 7:15). The predicted destruction of Jerusalem of the Temple and of cultic Yahudaism in 70 CE was the real "End-times," also referred to as the "end of the World" i.e., the end of the formal cultic (ceremonial) Yahudi Religious system.

We believe that King David miss-understood Nathan's prophecy, believing that Solomon was his appointed seed; however, it is clear, using correct Hebrew exegeses, that YHWH was not referring to a physical house or a Temple made for HIM of wood and stone (Isaiah 66:1), but a spiritual house, a house-hold, a tabernacle, built by Yahshua and formed from the collective assembly of Torah keeping believing Israelites, this would be the house-hold, the tabernacle, and the Kingdom of YHWH that would never end.

We believe that Daniel's 70 Weeks of years (490 years) were literally, perfectly and sequentially fulfilled, within the time frame of his four world empires. Its starting point was the Decree of Artaxerxes in 457 BC. The finishing point was in 34 AD, when the time determined exclusively upon the Yahudi was over and the message of the Coming Kingdom (council) of YHWH declared by Yahshua was free to go to the Diaspora (lost 10 tribes of Israel). There is no scriptural warrant or precedent for inserting a gap of any kind or duration.

We believe that Daniel's two visions (Daniel 2 & 7) portrayed four successive world empires, not five. They were Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece and the old Roman Empire. Daniel places the coming of one like the son of man [the Messiah] and the establishment of His everlasting kingdom during the time of this fourth world empire, the old Roman Empire. This was all fulfilled, exactly, without gaps, gimmicks or any interpretive high jinx by Yahshua.

Food law:

We believe in the adherence to the laws of clean meats in Lev. 11 and Deut. 14. These laws remain in effect for all of Israel; they are binding in our age; they are important to maintain our physical health. Although these laws pertain only to Israelites, non-Israelites can also benefit from them and become healthier by adhering to them. We should use all the knowledge we have received from YHWH to benefit the other races if they are inclined and willing to learn from YHWH's Torah.

Social Issues:

Homosexuality, Adultery (miscegenation, race mixing in marriages), Fornication, Abortion, Pedophilia, Sodomy, homosexual marriages etc., are all abominations to YHWH and forbidden by Israelites, and we do not accept these behaviors as acceptable or moral. These perverted actions are also violations of YHWH's General Laws and any such violations by man will always result in punishment or eventually, in bad consequences. There are no "free rides" when the laws of YHWH are broken. Furthermore, all religious organizations whose leaders and congregations willfully accept such behaviors are pseudo-believers. Attendance to their services should be avoided by those who walk in or are seeking to obey the Scriptural 10 Commandments, the Covenant/Contract of YHWH for True Israel.

Government and civil order:

We believe that YHWH's Torah is perfect; therefore, a government in the form of a theocracy based upon YHWH's Torah (Law) is a far superior system to govern a nation than man-made laws, rules, and regulations. Man-made laws, rules, and ordinances will ultimately result in enslaving the people through greed and self-serving leadership. We are not to add to or diminish from the commandments that YHWH has given to us by man made ordinances (Deut. 4:1-2), therefore only the laws YHWH as has been given us in His Torah are sufficient.

We believe that all present world problems are a result of disobedience to the Torah's (Special Revelation) by Israelites, (Deut. 28). For non-Israelite nations, it is because of disobedience to the Natural Laws (General Revelation) that they have been given. Both laws are provided by YHWH for maintaining order and civil societies and when kept will bring blessings to the upholder, but when violated will bring us curses.
